Re New York letter to Newark, 5/8/59 and Newark letter to New York, 5/25/59, both captioned "MORTON SOBELL, ESPIONAGE-R."

On 3/3/59, [REDACTED] of the Englewood, New Jersey Police Department, advised that one of his detectives had gone to Bridgeport, Connecticut and interviewed LOUIS FERRINI who was in custody of the Greenwich, Connecticut Police and the Connecticut State Police. FERRINI was arrested in Bergen County, New Jersey along with [REDACTED] in connection with a series of jewel robberies. b7c

According to [REDACTED] FERRINI told them that he had learned that [REDACTED] was a card carrying Communist as a result of a burglary in April, 1955 at the home of [REDACTED] wherein a safe was carried out of the premises. [REDACTED] stated he had no further information regarding this, except that he believes that [REDACTED] was employed in some Atomic Energy facility. [REDACTED] stated that FERRINI could not have stolen the safe as he was in jail at the time, but [REDACTED] believed he fingered the job. b7c

The following investigation concerning subject was conducted by SA WALTER P. GAVIN:

Records of the Garden State Credit Bureau, 429 Getty Avenue, Clifton, New Jersey, as made available by [REDACTED] on 3/26/59 contained the following information concerning the subject: b7c

A report dated 1/8/53 reflected that [REDACTED] and his wife, [REDACTED] then resided at [REDACTED] Englewood, New Jersey. Subject was then (January, 1953) 45 years of age, married and had wife and family as dependents. The report indicated that subject planned to change his residence in the near future to [REDACTED] b7c

[redacted] stated that the subject resides there with his wife [redacted] and a [redacted] and that he has another daughter [redacted], who resides at another location in Englewood, N.J. [redacted] stated that subject received mail at [redacted] b7d b7c

On May 19, 1959, LOUIS H. FERRINI was interviewed at the Fairfield County Jail, 1106 North Avenue, Bridgeport, Connecticut by SA JAMES J. MC CARTHY where FERRINI was then confined. FERRINI furnished the following information:

In the Spring of 1953 he was in the interior decorating business in Englewood, New Jersey and was hired by [REDACTED] Englewood, New Jersey, to do some decorating work in the [REDACTED] home. In the course of this work, FERRINI became friendly with [REDACTED].

On the day following the day that JULIUS and ETHEL ROSENBERG were electrocuted in 1953, FERRINI had breakfast with [REDACTED]. [REDACTED] stated that it was a shame that the ROSENBERGS were electrocuted. [REDACTED] said that he was friendly with either the ROSENBERGS or the SOBELL who was convicted with the ROSENBERGS, but FERRINI was unable to recall with which of these individuals [REDACTED] had stated he was friendly. [REDACTED] told FERRINI that either JULIUS ROSENBERG or SOBELL had visited [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] had entertained in his home either the ROSENBERGS or SOBELL.

On another occasion the older of the two [REDACTED] girls, whose name FERRINI was unable to recall, showed FERRINI a bracelet in a jewelry box in the master bedroom of the [REDACTED] home. She told FERRINI that the bracelet had been given to [REDACTED] by SOBELL. FERRINI described the bracelet as having a double row of diamonds with rubies in the center, and estimated it to be worth about $50,000.00.

In about July, 1953, while at work at the [REDACTED] home, FERRINI stole the bracelet from the jewelry box of [REDACTED] in the master bedroom, and also stole some money and a card from the jewelry box of [REDACTED]. The card was a little larger than a regular business card, was a grey pink in color, and stated that [REDACTED] was a member of an organization which FERRINI had seen previously in a newspaper in a list of organizations designated as subversive by the Attorney General of the United States. FERRINI stated that he took the card, intending to use it at some later date to extort money from [REDACTED]. FERRINI stated he hid the card and bracelet in some of his furniture, which he later sent to the warehouse of the Geneva Moving and Storage Company, Geneva, New York in January, 1955.

FERRINI was imprisoned in New Jersey from February, 1955 to September, 1957. On his release he went to Geneva, New York, but was unable to locate either the bracelet or the card.

To FERRINI's knowledge, [REDACTED] has never made any complaint to the police about the theft of the bracelet or the card. FERRINI was unable to furnish any description of [REDACTED]

FERRINI furnished the above information orally and declined to furnish a signed statement.

The following informants were contacted for information concerning the current activities of subject with negative results:

Inasmuch as no information has been developed to corroborate information furnished by FERRINI as to the COMMUNIST PARTY (CP) membership of subject this SM-C case is being closed.

If further investigation of subject is desired by New York Office in connection with subject's possible association with the ROSENBERGS and MORTON SOBELL, it is suggested that appropriate leads be set out under the "MORTON SOBELL, ESPIONAGE-R." 0

Re Buffalo let, 5/19/59.

On 6/12/59, [redacted] advised that on 6/5/59 at a regular meeting of the Workers World Party (recently formed Trotsky splinter group) it was announced that ANNETTE RUBINSTEIN would speak at WWP Headquarters, 831 Main St., Buffalo, on 6/19/59 on the Sobell case. (Buffalo location [redacted])

On 6/26/59, [redacted] advised that on 6/19/59 an open meeting sponsored by the Buffalo Labor Forum (a name assumed by the WWP) was held at 831 Main St. featuring a speech by Dr. ANNETTE RUBINSTEIN who spoke on the imprisonment of MORTON SOBELL. She asked her listeners: (1) to form a committee to work for the release of SOBELL; (2) to obtain signatures of clergymen concerning this matter, and (3) to help financially. Approximately 43 people, predominately members of the WWP, were in attendance [redacted]

[redacted] provided a copy of the 7/59 four-page newspaper "Day's Verdict" published by the National Committee to Secure Justice for Morton Sobell which was distributed at the meeting. It is noted that the listing of the various Sobell committees throughout the U.S. as set forth in this news sheet did not mention the existence of a committee in Buffalo. (Buffalo location: not yet dictated but will be contained in [redacted])

[redacted] on 6/22/59 additionally orally advised SA WILLIAM J. CONROY, JR., that at the 6/19/59 WWP meeting

LEWIN GRISWOLD, the present local Organizer of this group, publicly stated after the remarks of ANNETTE RUBINSTEIN, that the Buffalo Branch of the WWP would assist in setting up a Sobell committee in Buffalo. However, [REDACTED] stated that in his opinion GRISWOLD's remark had been intended only for public consumption and that the WWP had no intention of devoting efforts at this time to the formation of a Sobell Committee, since such a project would result in the weakening of the work of the Mothers Alliance (a front of the WWP in Buffalo which has been extremely active in local segregation issues). b7d

[REDACTED] b7d1

The above information indicates (1) that no committee exists locally now, but that the National Sobell Committee is interested in Buffalo; and (2) that if a committee comes into being it may well be a Trotskyite operation rather than a CP supported situation.

This office will maintain contact with Trotskyite and CP sources. If a committee should actually be formed, Buffalo will surep.

On June 27, 1959, the IASC regional banquet was held from 7:00 p.m. to 11:00 p.m. at the Embassy Auditorium Banquet Room, 847 South Grand Avenue, Los Angeles.

Another informant, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised that the program after the dinner was as follows:

At 9:20 p.m. Reverend ERWIN GAEDE chaired the program and gave a speech on his midwest tour for the Sobell Committee.

RE: LOS ANGELES SOBELL COMMITTEE

Reverend GAEDE talked about his success in his tour and his pleasure over the deep interest and concern displayed about MORTON SOBELL. JOYCE JAMES, a folk singer, sang two songs. Reverend GAEDE was presented with a plaque from the IASC in appreciation of the work he was doing for MORTON SOBELL.

HARRY RANKIN from Canada was to have given a report on the Regional Conference on June 27, 1959, but stated he felt a group like this was entitled to more than an organizational report. RANKIN recalled the time when he and others, at the time of the execution of the ROSENBERGS, went to the American Consulate in Vancouver to picket. RANKIN compared SOBELL's case with the SACCO-VANZETTI case and the DREYFUS case. RANKIN stated he was sure that SOBELL would be vindicated just as today no one believes DREYFUS was guilty. RANKIN pointed out that guilty people don't have committees set up prepared to fight on and on. RANKIN said people are becoming convinced that this should not have happened and stated it was a privilege to fight in the campaign for MORTON SOBELL. Reverend PETER MC CORMACK then spoke about "MORTON SOBELL, The Man." MC CORMACK spoke about his acquaintance with SOBELL while he, MC CORMACK, was Chaplain at Alcatraz prison.

On page 6 of the June 27, 1959 issue of the "National Guardian" is a news-type article entitled "1,000 at Rally for Sobell in New York" which reports that more than 1,000 persons attended a meeting at Webster Hall, New York City, on June 19, 1959, six years after the execution of Julius and Ethel Rosenberg, to help Professor Thomas T. Emerson of Yale Law School, Horace Mallon of the New School for Social Research, and Murray Branch of Atlanta's Morehouse College, win freedom for Morton Sobell. According to this article, talks were also given by Helen Sobell, wife, and Rose Sobell, mother. The article reports that Professor Branch said that Sobell did not receive a fair trial and called for reopening the case or clemency for Sobell; Doctor Mallon called the case against Sobell weak and urged presidential commutation of sentence; Rose and Helen Sobell discussed life with Sobell and the events of June 17, 1953, the night that the Rosenbergs were executed. According to the article, close to $2,000 was contributed to the committee by the audience. 4

A confidential source advised on June 26, 1959, that a meeting, sponsored by the CSM, was held in New York City at Webster Hall on June 19, 1959, [REDACTED]

672 [REDACTED] This source furnished a resume of the activities and speeches: Professor Thomas I. Emerson of Yale University, chairman of the meeting, attacked the prosecution and conviction of Sobell as illegal and pleaded for the release of Sobell;
Professor Murray Branch of Atlanta's Morehouse College, said the Rosenbergs and Sobell were the victims of Anti-semitic prejudice and pleaded for reopening the case or commutation of sentence; Rose Sobell, mother, told of Sobell's youth;
Helen Sobell, wife, spoke on her personal hardships since Sobell's conviction, how she desired children and this was denied her, of her struggle to obtain his release, and pleaded for contributions; and, Professor Horace Kallen of the New School for Social Research, pleaded for the formation of a commission to review the case impartially and publish its findings.

A second confidential source advised on June 29, 1959, that the CSM held a meeting at Webster Hall, New York City, on June 19, 1959, at which an admission charge of $1.00 was requested. This source advised that the speakers, who included Professor Emerson of Yale, Murray Branch of Atlanta, Georgia, Helen and Rose Sobell, and Horace Kallen of New York City, protested the conviction and imprisonment of Sobell, appealed for funds to fight for reversal of his conviction and pleaded for presidential commutation of sentence. This source advised that the speakers claimed that government witnesses lied during the trial in return for not being prosecuted themselves.

A third confidential source advised on June 22, 1959, that a public meeting of the CSM was held June 19,

National Committee to Secure

1977, in New York City, which was attended by approximately 900 persons. This source advised that the speakers claimed that Sobell and the Rosenberg were innocent, the victims of mass hysteria due to an unfair press, and demanded re-opening of the case or clemency for Sobell.

Other confidential sources advised on various dates that they had attended a public meeting of the CSJM on June 19, 1977, at Webster Hall in New York City, and furnished substantially the same information as recorded above.

APPENDIX

CHICAGO SOBELL COMMITTEE

The Committee on Un-American Activities, in its report "Trial by Treason," dated August 25, 1956, page 124, cited the Chicago Sobell Committee as one of the local organizations active in the Communist propaganda campaign exploiting atomic spies ETHEL and JULIUS ROSENBERG and MORTON SOBELL.

JUSTICE FOR MORTON SOBELL

The "Guide to Subversive Organizations and Publications," revised and published as of January 2, 1957, prepared and released by the Committee on Un-American Activities, United States House of Representatives, Washington, D. C., contains the following concerning the National Committee to Secure Justice for Morton Sobell:

1. Following the execution of atomic spies Ethel and Julius Rosenberg in June 1953, the 'Communist' campaign assumed a different emphasis. Its major effort centered upon Morton Sobell, the Rosenbergs' codefendant. The National Committee to Secure Justice in the Rosenberg Case--a Communist front which had been conducting the campaign in the United States--was reconstituted as the National Rosenberg-Sobell Committee at a conference in Chicago in October 1953 and 'then as the National Committee to Secure Justice for Morton Sobell in the Rosenberg Case.' National headquarters remained at 1050 6th Avenue, New York City. Co-chairmen of the newest organization were Daniel Marshall and Joseph Brainin. (Committee on Un-American Activities, Report, 'Trial by Treason: The National Committee to Secure Justice for the Rosenbergs and Morton Sobell,' August 25, 1956, pp. 118 and 120; also cited in Annual Report for 1955, House Report 1648, January 17, 1956, originally released January 11, 1956, p. 30.)"

AMERICAN COMMITTEE FOR PROTECTION OF FOREIGN BORN (MINNESOTA COMMITTEE FOR PROTECTION OF FOREIGN BORN)

A source advised on April 20, 1959, that the Minnesota Committee for Protection of Foreign Born (MCPFB) was organized in October, 1952, for the purpose of carrying out the aims and policies of the American Committee for Protection of Foreign Born (ACPFB). According to the source, the Communist Party of Minneapolis supports the MCPFB to the extent of announcing forthcoming meetings of the MCPFB and urging Communist Party club members to attend these meetings.

Further, the same source stated the MCPFB continues to follow the policies set down by the ACPFB and is the Minnesota organization of the ACPFB, the latter organization having been designated by the Attorney General of the United States pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

The Communist Party, USA, has been designated by the Attorney General of the United States pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

"NATIONAL GUARDIAN"

The Committee on Un-American Activities, on page 12 of its report dated August 25, 1956, stated the "National Guardian" was established by the American Labor Party in 1947 as a "progressive" weekly. The report continued by stating that although the "National Guardian" denies having any affiliation with the Communist Party, it has manifested itself, from the beginning, as a virtual official propaganda arm of Soviet Russia.

The Special Committee on Un-American Activities, in their report of March 29, 1944, stated that "for years the Communists have put forth the greatest efforts to capture the entire American Labor Party throughout New York State. They succeeded in capturing the Manhattan and Brooklyn sections of the American Labor Party but outside of New York City they have been unable to win control."

The Internal Security Subcommittee of the Senate Judiciary Committee, in its report dated April 23, 1956, states that "Communist dissimulation extends into the field of political parties forming political front organizations such as the American Labor Party. The Communists are thus able to present their candidates for elective office under other than a straight Communist label."

On October 7, 1956, PETER HAWLEY, New York State Chairman, American Labor Party, publicly announced the American Labor state committee unanimously approved a resolution dissolving the organization and ordering the liquidation of its assets.

The Communist Party has been designated by the Attorney General of the United States pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

"Buffalo, N.Y.
June 19, 1959

WORKERS WORLD PARTY

"I attended an open Civil Rights Meeting Friday evening, June 19, 1959 at 831 Main St., sponsored by the Buffalo Labor Forum (WORKERS WORLD PARTY). The main speaker was Dr. Annette Rubinstein who spoke on the fight to free from jail Morton Sobell, a young American scientist who was accused of being in a conspiracy to commit espionage and brought to trial with Ethel and Julius Rosenberg.

"There were about 43 present.

"Lew Griswold was Chairman of the meeting and introduced Vera Spruill as the first speaker. She reported the recent activities of the Mothers Alliance. She stated that the Mothers Alliance had won a victory from the W.T. Grant Company, which will result in the hiring of negro sales girls at the Main Street store. She spoke of the picket line at the Grant down-town store. She also stated that they formed a picket line at the Grant store on Jefferson Ave., Saturday, June 13. She stated that the Grant Company agreed to meet the Mothers Alliance on Tuesday, June 16 and a delegation called on the Manager, Mr. Mazuca. The appointment was made by Vincent Suitt, industrial secretary of the Buffalo Urban League, after the group had picketed the Grant Store on Jefferson Ave. Those present at the conference were Vera Spruill, Deirdre Griswold, Ruth Stone, Vincent Suitt, Robert Mazuca and Mr. Smitherman, editor of the EMPIRE STAR. The manager explained that he was from Philadelphia, having been in Buffalo only a short time and had been too busy to look into the policies of the store. The manager agreed to give Negro girls equal opportunity and they would begin screening sales girls for the Grant Store. They also distributed leaflets at the

BU 100-16691

Saturday picket at the Grant Jefferson Ave., store.

"Lew Griswold then introduced Dr. Annette Rubinstein, the main speaker of the evening. She started by giving a brief history of the Ethel and Julius Rosenberg case. She stated that in 1950 Morton Sobell, wife and family were touring in Mexico. That the F.B.I. went down to Mexico and literally kidnapped the Sobell family. Sobell was accused of being in conspiracy to commit espionage and brought to trial with Ethel and Julius Rosenberg and the verdict at the time was guilty with 30 years imprisonment penalty. She stated the charges against Sobell were supported mainly by the testimony of a man named Max Elitcher. She stated Sobell was never implicated with atomic espionage for which the Rosenbergs are convicted, but the fact that he was tried with the Rosenbergs made it difficult to separate the two cases and recognize the different character of the two charges. She said that Sobell has now served nearly 8 years in prison, 6 of them in Alcatraz.

"Dr. Rubinstein stated that the prison chaplain at Alcatraz, Rev. McCormack, a Presbyterian minister, fully believes that Morton Sobell is innocent. Shortly after Rev. McCormack made public his belief that Sobell was innocent he was let out of Alcatraz. He is now working in his behalf and giving talks throughout the country. She stated that many clergymen have signed up asking for the release of Morton Sobell. Dr. Rubinstein asked the Buffalo people to try to get signatures of clergymen in Buffalo. Also to form a committee and work for the release of Morton Sobell and third to help financially. There was a collection taken up [REDACTED]

"There was a short discussion from the floor and the meeting adjourned for the social part of the meeting about 9:40."

NATIONAL COMMITTEE TO SECURE JUSTICE FOR MORTON SOBELL IN THE ROSENBERG CASE

The "Guide To Subversive Organizations and Publications," revised and published as of January 2, 1957, prepared and released by the Committee on Un-American Activities, United States House of Representatives, Washington, D. C., contains the following concerning the National Committee to Secure Justice For Morton Sobell in the Rosenberg Case:

National headquarters remained at 1050 6th Avenue, New York City. Co-chairmen of the newest organization were Daniel Marshall and Joseph Brainin.

"The signers of this letter have in common a conviction that the time has arrived for a thorough, independent and impartial public examination of the issues in the Rosenberg-Sobell trial. With the reflection which comes with the passage of time, more and more individuals and publications are observing the need for reappraisal. Moreover, Morton Sobell, maintaining his innocence, remains imprisoned under a 30-year sentence, thus giving an urgency in human terms as well as in historical necessity.

"We propose that a Commission of Inquiry be established that would meet the requirements for the kind of scholarly, independent and objective investigation necessary.

"It is not without an awareness of the sacrifice in time and energy which must be expended that we address this request to you. Yet in other vital issues of the past, citizens have traditionally come forward in this manner. It is a strong sense of responsibility which impels us to take this initial step in helping to establish such a Commission of Inquiry.

"We therefore respectfully ask you to consider serving on this proposed inquiry commission. Kindly address your comment to Reverend Peter Mc Cormack, 2801 Turk Street, San Francisco, California.

"Very sincerely yours,

A STATEMENT OF THE CASE OF MORTON SOBELL

The undersigned are American citizens who believe that the sentence of MORTON SOBELL should now be commuted. SOBELL was convicted of conspiring with others to transmit to the Soviet Union writings and information relating to the national defense of the United States and was sentenced on April 1, 1951 to serve thirty years in Federal Prison.

MORTON SOBELL was tried with JULIUS and ETHEL ROSENBERG who were convicted of espionage in connection with the atomic bomb and who were sentenced to death and later executed. SOBELL, however, was never implicated in any way with involvement in the atomic espionage for which the ROSENBERGS were convicted. This fact was confirmed by the judge who sentenced SOBELL.

This statement is not concerned with the ROSENBERG conviction. The undersigned are and consistently have been convinced anti-Communists. None are associated with any organization, committee, or group of any kind concerned either with the case of the ROSENBERGS or that of SOBELL; nor are any of the undersigned connected in any way with MORTON SOBELL or any members of his family. After study of the case, we believe that the following considerations warrant a commutation of the very heavy sentence SOBELL is now serving.

1. SOBELL was never implicated with atomic espionage for which the ROSENBERGS were convicted.

2. The charges against SOBELL, supported mainly by the testimony of one man, MAX ELITCHER, were that he had solicited information, and had on one occasion taken something which looked like a can of film to JULIUS ROSENBERG. No specific item of information supposed to have been secured by him or transmitted by him to anyone else is specified in the record. The case against him, therefore, is vague in content and slender in proof. The possibility that a trip to Mexico which he and his family took should be construed as flight cannot be ignored, though it is subject to various interpretations.

3. Whether or not the judge and prosecution made sufficient efforts to provide a fair trial, we ought to recognize that the emotions surrounding the trial of the ROSENBERGS and the fact that SOBELL's case was tried with theirs made it difficult to separate the two cases and to recognize the very different character of the two charges and the evidence introduced to support them respectively.

4. SOBELL has already served, with good conduct, nearly eight years in prison, six of them in Alcatraz.

NY 100-107111

5. As Americans we are fully aware of the threat of communism to our freedom and way of life. Any attack on that freedom from without or within must be resisted. Nevertheless, one of the factors which makes that freedom so precious is its capacity to practice a disciplined and humane administration of justice precisely in those cases where emotions are aroused which make it difficult to remain objective about the merits of a specific case. We believe a commutation of the SOBELL Sentence would demonstrate our national faith in that freedom.

United States Senate, Washington, D.C. - Submitted in behalf of the Committee to Secure Justice for MORTON SOBELL, 940 Broadway, New York City 10, N.Y." which is set forth in part as follows:

"This statement is submitted in behalf of the Committee to Secure Justice for MORTON SOBELL. The concern evidenced herein stems from the interest we have as Americans in the development and securing of good relations with our neighbors in the Western Hemisphere, as well as our particular interest in seeking justice in the case of MORTON SOBELL.

"These dual interests are closely interrelated. At the core of the problem of friendly relations between countries is the mutual respect and observance of territorial sovereignty. We hope to show that the practice of international kidnapping of a person from the territory of a Latin American country so as to effectuate his return to the United States is a naked violation of the principle of territorial sovereignty and a source of suspicion and distrust between nations.....

"One of the most significant, if not the single most important guarantee of good relations between the United States and its Latin American neighbors is the scrupulous regard and respect for national sovereignty.....

"In this statement we are concerned with a separate but related aspect of the problem of recognition and respect for national sovereignty which we respectfully submit lies at the core of our relations with Latin American countries. This aspect is the unlawful and irregular kidnapping of persons in Latin American countries to obtain their return to the United States. This situation sharply raises the important issues of violation and total disregard of solemn extradition treaty obligations, violation of the internationally recognized right of asylum, and disregard for the established policies governing law enforcement and the administration of justice in the country whose sovereignty is so violated....."

"April, 1959

"Dear Friend:

"MORTON SOBELL, under the strict rules limiting his writing of letters to the outside world, cannot address you personally.

"If he could, he would undoubtedly pose to you the same question he recently posed in a letter to his mother.

"Will we--or won't we--finally emerge, completely and fully, from the MC CARTHY era?"

NY 100-107111

"The MORTON SOBELL case itself provides a measure of how this question will ultimately be answered. It is because thousands of Americans recognize the ROSENBERG-SOBELL trial as the most blatant injustice of the MC CARTHY hysteria that support for MORTON SOBELL's freedom grows and grows.

"How soon will MORTON SOBELL be freed? That depends on all of us.

"It depends on our lawyers who at this moment are preparing for new action in the courts. It depends on the men and women of integrity who are addressing appeals to the President. It depends on MORTON SOBELL's wife and mother who are working with almost unbelievable strength. It depends on our devoted committees throughout the country.

"Above all, it depends on you.

"Read the enclosed newsletter giving the latest facts and telling what you can do. Then do not fail to act, in every way that you can.

"Please be sure to mail your contribution to help finance our work in the return envelope enclosed for this purpose.

Mrs. SOBELL stated she plans to write to this Italian woman and invite her to the United States to accompany Mrs. SOBELL on speaking tours. PHILADELPHIA SOCIAL SCIENCE FORUM
COMMITTEE (PSSFC)

A source advised on November 14 and 17, 1958 that a meeting of the District Education Commission (CPEPD), was held November 13, 1958 at 3425 Powelton Avenue, Philadelphia. At this meeting, DANIEL RUBIN, District Education Director, presented a proposal for a series of forums under the nominal sponsorship of the Philadelphia Social Science Forum Committee (PSSFC). The source stated the PSSFC was merely a paper organization and this series of forums was organized by the District Education Commission, CPEPD, and had to be approved by the District Committee, CPEPD, before being put into effect.

A second source advised June 10, 1959, that the PSSFC remained under the control of the District Education Commission, CPEPD. It is now planned by RUBIN that a new series of forums will be conducted in the Fall of 1959, according to this source.

THE COMMITTEE TO SECURE JUSTICE FOR MORTON SOBELL

A source advised on 4/8/58 that on 4/7/58, a meeting was held in Philadelphia to re-establish the Committee to Secure Justice for Morton Sobell in Philadelphia. This committee will be called locally, the Philadelphia Sobell Committee.

The "Guide to Subversive Organizations and Publications," revised and published as of 1/2/57, prepared and released by the Committee on Un-American Activities, U. S. House of Representatives, Washington, D. C., contains the following concerning the National Committee to Secure Justice for Morton Sobell:

"Following the execution of atomic spies ETHEL and JULIUS ROSENBERG in June, 1953, the 'Communist' campaign assumed a different emphasis. Its major effort centered upon MORTON SOBELL, the ROSENBERGS' co-defendant. The National Committee to Secure Justice in the Rosenberg Case -- a Communist front which had been conducting the campaign in the United States -- was reconstituted as the National Rosenberg-Sobell Committee at a conference in Chicago in October, 1953, and 'then as the National Committee to Secure Justice for Morton Sobell in the Rosenberg Case.' National headquarters remained at 1050 6th Avenue, New York City. Co-chairmen of the newest organization were DANIEL MARSHALL and JOSEPH BRAUNIN.

(Committee on Un-American Activities, Report, 'Trial by Treason: The National Committee to Secure Justice for the Rosenbergs and Morton Sobell,' August 25, 1956, pp. 118 and 120; also cited in Annual Report for 1955, House Report 1648, January 17, 1956, originally released January 11, 1956, p. 30.)"

Another source advised on 5/15/59 that the Philadelphia Sobell Committee continues to be active and has expanded into Lower Bucks County, Pennsylvania. Its activities are concerned primarily with raising funds to be used in an attempt to secure the release of MORTON SOBELL from prison.

HELEN SOBELL INTERVIEWED BY CANADIAN BROADCASTING COMPANY, LEADING SEATTLE PAPER PUBLISHES ARTICLE ABOUT TRIP

Reports from the Western trip being made by Helen Sobell tell a story of meeting more and more people, adding to support and getting existing press and TV coverage.

In Vancouver, first stop on Helen Sobell's journey along the West Coast, the CBC, the major broadcasting system in Canada, filmed a television interview with her for a local program, and possibly a national hook-up. She met with women's groups, university people, spoke at a campus meeting and at a public forum, and was interviewed by newspaper editors. Committee members in Vancouver worked on the planning and preparation for these activities and raised funds to cover expenses plus a contribution to the national campaign. In Vancouver, the clergy appeal is being launched throughout Canada.

Upon reaching Seattle, Helen Sobell held a press conference which achieved excellent results. She appeared on three television newscasts that night. The Seattle Post-Intelligencer, the leading paper in the city, carried on page 5 a friendly story, together with her photograph taken by a staff photographer. The newspaper, under the heading "SOBELL'S WIFE HERE SEEKING AID FOR HIM" reported in the story: "In the press interview, Mrs. Sobell, a diminutive brunette who holds degrees in education and physics, said stoutly: (and then in bold type) 'My husband is innocent!'"

Following the news conference, she met with clergymen at the YMCA and that evening she addressed a group at a Seattle church. Further stops were planned for Portland, San Francisco, Fresno, Los Angeles, San Diego, and possibly Tucson and Phoenix.

NEW YORK--The New York Committee is pressing forward its summer work on the appeal for the fund-trip to Mexico, house parties, and visiting the summer resorts to raise funds there for the New York and National work.

CHICAGO--Milton Alexander, in a report on results thus far on her trip to the mid-west, writes: "I think this is really worth it. I've had an excellent response almost everywhere I've been." In Pittsburgh, Dayton, and Chicago, she has been discussing the case with newspaper editors, educators, community and civic leaders, ministers, rabbis, and others whom she felt might be helpful. Milwaukee and Detroit scheduled committee meetings to discuss future work with her. Another stop is planned for Des Moines.

ATLANTA--The Atlanta Journal published a letter from Helen Sobell correcting the paper's erroneous reference to Sobell as an "A-spy." Her letter, under the heading "Wife insists that Sobell is innocent," was followed by an editorial note saying that "there is a strong movement under way to free Mr. Sobell" and citing the contention that "he was a victim of the anti-communist hysteria of the period." Rose Sobell is scheduled to be in Atlanta August 3 and 4 for visits with Norton.

CHICAGO--The appeal by clergymen will be widely circulated in the Chicago area. Many clergymen have become interested in seeing that it reaches substantial numbers of persons who might wish to sign. A major mailing of our new tabloid newspaper is being undertaken by the Chicago committee.
